SUNDAY SCHOOL EXPERTS MEET

Encouraging Reports Read in First Baptist Church Last Night.

MAKE GOOD SHOWING.

Over Two Thousand Persons Attended Sunday Schools in Alexandria on Last Sunday.

The Sunday school Conference, the object of which is to secure greater efficiency in Sunday school work, which convened yesterday afternoon at the First Baptist Church, was concluded last night with a mass meeting at that church.

W. W. Mann, the superintendent of the Sunday School of the Mount Vernon Place M. E. Church South, of Washington, presided and made an address on the "Purposes of the Modern Sunday School." Others who spoke were: Rev. Frank McElfresh, superintendent of the Teacher Training Department of the International Sunday School Association, Chicago; Thomas C. Diggs, general secretary of the Virginia Sunday School Association, Richmond; Rev. Dr. A. L. Phillips, of Richmond, and M. E. Church, of Falls Church, president of the same association. J. Frank Myer, of Alexandria, also made a short but practical address.

The mass meeting was attended by ministers, Sunday school workers, and laymen from the various Protestant churches in the city identified with the movement.

The sessions were opened yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and were presided over by J. R. Mansfield, president, who made an address of welcome to the delegates in attendance. The business session consisted of reports of the various officers connected with the association and others. The business session concluded with the election of officers as follows: J. Frank Myers, of the M. E. Church South, president, Dr. J. H. Bitzer, of the Second Presbyterian Church, vice president; John W. Herndon, of Christ Episcopal Church, secretary and treasurer. These officers were installed by W. W. Milan.

Election of superintendents of departments resulted as follows: Miss M. E. Bontz, of Christ Episcopal primary; Miss Helen N. Cummings, of Christ, secondary; N. L Williamson, of First Baptist, adult Bible; Mrs. Wm. Campbell, of Second Presbyterian, home department; Miss M. Gault Norton, of St. Paul's Episcopal, teacher training.

Addresses were made in the afternoon by the following on these subjects: Rev. McElfresh, "Home Training Department and Teacher Training;" Dr. Phillips, "Bible Class and Primary Department," Mr. Diggs, "Secondary Department."

John W. Herndon, secretary and treasurer of the association, made a report, showing the number of white children in the city receiving religious instruction, compared with those receiving no instruction.

Mrs. William Campbell, superintendent of the Home Department, reported an increase of 233 1-3 over the attendance last year. The highest record in the state, and the banner will be held in the Second Presbyterian church.

John W. Herndon entertained the visitors and officers of the association at a dinenr at his home. At 6 o'clock the delegates and others attending were served supper at Lee Camp Hall. The women of the Second Baptist church served the supper.

Interesting and encouraging exhibits concerning Sunday school work in this city and state were made during the meetings. It was shown that there are 4,343 white persons in Alexandria under 21 years of age, of which number 2,731 are enrolled in Sunday schools. Over 2,000 of this number attended Sunday schools last Sunday. The attendance being as follows:

First Baptist, 354; M. E. Church South, 352; Second Presbyterian, 210; Trinity, 156; Christ, 155; Methodist Protestant, 108; Grace, 186; St. Paul's, 135; Second Baptist, 63; Third Baptist, 46; Presbyterian Mission, 66; M. E. Church South, mission, 107; Good Shepherd, 42. Figures for St. Mary's Catholic Church and Immanuel Lutheran church were not given.

General Secretary Diggs states that one-fourth of the population of Virginia attend Sunday schools, which is only exceeded by two states in the country

AT WASHINGTON THEATRES.

At the Belasco.

The Schuberts are responsible for the American production of "The Wedding Night," at the Belasco Theatre this week. It was originally called "Oh, I Say," and the French authors were Keroul and Barre. In the original French the piece had a tremendous success in Paris and in its rfist translation made a great hit in London. There is a laugh in almost every line and there are three acts of the lines.

The movement of the farce itself is interrupted fraequently by tuneful songs and some very clever dances, and the piece is excellently cast.

Two splendid pieces of character work fall to the credit of Walter Jones as the father and Jeffreys Lewis as the mother of the bride. Of course the leading role of all is that of the actress, and it is beautifully played by Cecil Cunningham. Taylor Holmes makes a decidedly good part out of the pursued bridegroom and puts enough acrobatics into his worries to furnish many laughs which are not dependent on the lines. Alice Yorke is a charming bride, and Joseph W. Herbert, as Count Buzot, a combined promoter and angel of theatricals, gives another exceedingly clever bit of character work.

The remainder of the company is thoroughly capable, including the chorus, which not only looked well and dressed well, but knew how to dance and could really sing.

At The Gayety.

The "Liberty Girls," with Matt Kennedy, are at the Gayety this week, and two large audiences yesterday pronounced their offering one of the best burlesque shows seen here this season. Two burlettas, replete with good singing and dancing, comprise the bill of fare. "Is Marriage a Failure?" is the title of the opening number, while the performance closes with "I Should Worry, Says Adolph." Matt Kennedy dominates both burlettas and succeeds in getting a laugh every minute. Mona Raymond, Frankie Rice, and Red Feather, an Indian soprano, have a number of good songs and render them delightfully. Red Feather and White Hawk, an Indian tenor, presented a wild west scene featured by several songs. One of the big hits of the show is the burlesque on "Pinafore", with the scene laid on board an English warship. Many of the gems of the opera are sung by the principals and chorus.

Gene Gomez, a female impersonator, gives a sketch that was well received. Caprice, a clever dancer, also figures in the entertainment. The chorus is one of the most capable that has been seen here in a long time. Some of the song hits are, "When Cupid Comes to Town," "Country Girl," Joe Dillon's Scotch medleys, and "Honyemoon Express."

CROKER KNOCKS MURPHY

Elimination Necessary to Save Tammany, says Former Sachem.

New York, Feb. 10—Charles F. Murphy got the heaviest blow yesterday that he has received thus far as leader of Tammany Hall, His predecessor, Richard Croker, declared Murphy's elimination necessary for the salvation of Tammany Hall.

The Croker attack was embodied in a letter written by him to John Fox who was once president of the National Democratic Club, from the Croker estate in Ireland on Nevember 18, 1913.

All Tammany stood aghast at this open break between Murphy and Croker. The publication of the letter shook the faith of many organization men, who, while faithful to Murphy, have harked back to Croker as the real pattern of a leader for the Wigwam's fortunes.

In his letter, Mr. Croker, referring to McCall's defeat for Mayor, said:

"The result of the election did not surprise me as I felt sure that Mitchel would have a very large majority. Murphy was a big handicap on McCall. The Hall will never win under Murphy's management. I hope some good man will get in and drive all them grafters—contractors—out."

PROGRESS OF ENABLING ACT

Wine, Beer and Cider Stricken Out of Bill By House.

CONFERENCE TO ACT.

Two Wets and Four Drys Compose Conference Committee Appointed by Both Branches Today.

(Special dispatch to Gazette.)

Richmond, Va., Feb. 10.—When the Senate sasembled at noon the body was formally notified that the House had declined to concur in the Senate amendments of the eanbling act.

Senator Holt, chairman of the committee that considered the bill, moved that the Senate insist upon its amendments and ask a committee conference.

Senator Mapp, speaking for the drys, acquiesced in, this suggestion, and the motion prevailed.

Richmond, Feb. 10—Speaker Cox and Lieutenant Governor Ellyson announced the conference committee from both houses this afternoon.

On the part of the Senate—Holt, of Newport News, wet.; Mapp, of Accomac, dry; Echols, of Staunton dry.

On the part of the House—Williams of Giles, dry; Oliver, of Fairfax wet; Barley, of Betetourt, dry.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 10.—Every Senate amendment to the Williams enabling act was rejected by the House of delegates yesterday, and the senate was put on notice that the House refused to concur in the bill as amended. The wine and beer exemptions sent over from the Senate met with less support than those amendments considered on Saturday, and even the amendment exempting cider from the prohibition clause, went down to defeat by a vote 68 to 24.

There was little debate and no effort to explain the amendments. The friends of the bill had shown their strength on Saturday, and had materially increased their following. One after another of the remaining alterations was presented, and with but little debate the House refused to concur. In fact, most of the so-called "wets," who voted consistently against the bill, voted not to concur in the wine and beer exemptions, which out of the 100 members, mustered only eight votes in the house.

Mr. Page, of Albemarle, presented petitions from the owners of approximately 2,000,000 apple trees in Virginia, who claimed that it was necessary to allow them to make cider in order to take care of the by-products of their orchards. He expressed the hope that the House would concur in this amendment.

"I have profound respect for the local conditions described," said Judge Williams, "but this is a case where something must be yielded to the public good. I hope the House will vote not to concur."

The roll call resulted: Ayes, 25; noes 68, and the house refused to concur. Mr. Birrell voted with the majority.

A dispatch from Curling, Newfoundland, says the United States naval tug Potomac was sighted Saturday in an ice floe 5 miles west of Bay of Islands. When the Potomac abandoned her attempt on Thursday to liberate icebound fishing vessels she was short of coal and was using her reserve supply. Men familiar with conditions off the coast were of the opinion that her position is not a dangerous one.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Dr. Charles W. Eliot, former president of Harvard University in a letter to Charles F. Pender, of the trolley men's union of New Haven says that while labor unions have raised wages and shortened hours, "They have had a bad effect on the character and happiness of their members."Mr. Pender had requested Dr. Elliot to explain his reasons for disliking trade unions He made public the reply today. Dr. Eliot says his objections are educational and moral. Because of "Certain objectionable methods—especially the use of violence to gain their ends," he declares the effect upon the morals. "I cannot agree with you that the unions have brought happiness to any workingman. Happiness and content are states of mind. * * * All well-read, thinking people believe that the progress of civilization depends on universal, steady productive labor; the union seem to believe that the less one works the better."

There were carried into thousands of homes last night lessons from nine of the greatest Biblical scholars and teachers of the continents, the speakers of the midwinter Bible conference, which began its regular course of work in First Congregational Church Washington in the morning. From 9 o'clock in the morning until late last night the Bible and its teachings furnished deeply interesting themes, for the multitudes. One speaker followed another without interval. In New York Avenue Church last night Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives, presided.

Maury I Diggs, former State architect, and who, with F. Drew Caminetti son of Anthony Caminetti, United States inspector of immigration, was convicted of violating the Mann white slave act, was held yesterday in police court to answer in the superior court to a charge of assault preferred by Ida Pearring. The complaining witness swore she was only 17 years old. Walter Gilligan, Diggs' companion on New Year's day, when the alleged offense took place also was held. Bonds were placed at $10,000 each, or $5,000 cash bail, which neither Diggs nor Gilligan has been able to furnish.

William Marconi announces in London that he can light lamps by wireless at a distance of six miles. The receiver connected in turn with a bulb of a lamp was attached to a wire The receiving aerial wire. At the other point of the experiment a transmitter in space was linked up with 100 horsepower. As soon as the power was applied the bulb 6 miles away was lighted and remained alight as long as the power was kept on. This experiment, Mr. Marconi hopes, may be a forerunner of the use of wireless power for lighting and heating houses.

Lieut. Henry B. Post, of the First aero corps, considered one of the most skillful United State army aviators, plunged to his death in San Diego bay Cal., yesterday, when the right wing of his hydroaeroplane crumpled like an eggshell. Post died after establishing an American altitude record of 12,120 feet. He fell on his descent 600 feet into shallow water, and was dead when Francis Wildman, another aviator, reached the scene in a flying boat.

President Wilson's opposition to the literacy test as a restrictive measure on immigration has been communicated to the Senate committee on immigration, which has before it the Burnett bill as passed by the House. The President's attitude was not volunteered, but solicited by direction of the committee, which authorized its chairman Senator Ellison D. Smith, of South Carolina, to confer with the chief executive

OPINIONS ON LIABILITY BILL

Measure Endorsed by Officials of VirginiaFederation of Labor.

RAILWAY MEN AVERSE

Representatives of Unions Ask That Act be Amended to Exclude Their Organizations.

Richmond, Feb., 10—The movement to put in the Virginia statute books a comprehensive workingmen's compensation act designed to eliminate the economic waste attendant upon industrial accidents, received its legislative premiere with a public hearing last night before the joint Senate and House Committees for Courts of Justice, on the companion employers' liability bills introduced by Senator Wendenburg and Delegate Chalkley.

Officials of the Virginia Federation of Labor gave the pending measure high praise, suggesting only minor modifications. Legislative representatives of the organized railway conductors, engineers, trainmen, firemen and telegraphers, on the other hand, registered their flat opposition and asked that if the bill is made law it be amended to exclude them from its operations.

The hearing lasted from 8:30 until 11 o'clock. The committee voted to hold another joint meeting at 8 o'clock on Thursday night, at which time it will conclude the public examination and prepare to make a report.

J. A. Dodson, of Portsmouth, legislative representative of the Order of Railway Conductors, told the committee that the members of his organization considered the bill detrimental to their best interests. The maximum compensation for death or disability provided by the measure, he said, was less than is obtained by railway men in ordinary adjustments.

The men he represented, he said, made from $125 to $300 a month, and the maximum disability compensation of $15 a week provided by the act was wholly inadequate. He asked that the bill be amended to eliminate railroad employes

The same view was expressed by B. R. Catlin, of this city, legislative representative of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Every provision of the bill for accident protection, he said, was less than is at present enjoyed by railway men. Its provisions, he thought, moreover, reduced the amount of protection now guaranteed them by the State laws. He joined with Mr. Dodson in asking that railway men be exempted.

A delegation from the organized railway firemen, trainmen and telegraphers was on hand to ask for a similar exemption, but made no address to the committee.

E. C. Davison, of the Virginia Federation of Labor, gave the bill his unreserved indorsement.

Equally strong indorsement of the bill was given by H. T. Colvin, secretary of the Virginia Federation of Labor. The act, he said was a long step in the right direction. He pointed out several sections which he thought should be modified.

SHOT IN PISTOL DUEL.

Telephone Operator in Ohio Hotel is Wounded When Clerk Opens Fire

Columbus, O., Feb. 10—While exchanging a fusillade of shots here yesterday with three police officers, Harry Magarian, aged 25, hotel clerk was probably fatally wounded by a bullet from a revolver in the hands of Patrolman Robert Hammel.

The battle followed the accidental shooting of Miss Claudia Davis, a telephone operator, by Magarian while firing at his brother John, during a quarrel occasioned by alleged remarks of the latter concerning Miss Davis.

After shooting the girl Magarian barricaded himself in a room and defied arrest. When three police officers rushed in he opened fire. The officers returned it, and Magarian was taken to a hospital in a dying condition. Miss Davis probably will recover.

WOLF ATTACKS WOMAN.

Chased Through Streets of Kansas City And is Shot.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 10—A large, half-starved gray wolf, after biting two persons, frightening a score of others and spreading consternation through a staid residence district, was shot and killed on Linwood boulevard here yesterday.

The wolf sprang at Miss Anna Harrison as she waited for a street car. Miss Harrison threw her fur muff at the animal, and while the garment was being torn to pieces escaped into a house. Her clothing was torn, but she was unhurt.

The wolf ran down the boulevard, pursued by a milkman, who hurled bottles as he ran. Two blocks from the first attack the wolf bit a negro in the arm.

The wolf had run 15 blocks and attacked Samuel J. Harnden, a deputy county collector, before T. W. Wright, a policeman, ended the chase by sending a bullet into the animal's head.

Superintendent Hodges's Case Before Senate Committee.

After having had charges against him dismissed by the school trustees of Alexandria county and the State board of Education, W. T. Hodges, division superintendent of schools of Alexandria county, will be compelled to face an investigation by the committee on confirmations of the State Senate which will be held in Richmond this afternoon. Mr. Hodges' nomination was sent to the senate after a thorough probe and dismissal of charges but was held in the Senate.

James E. Clements and James G. Pepper, both of Alexandria county, who pressed the original charge against Hodges, are said to have laid the present matters before the state senate. Five witnesses will be allowed from each side to appear before the committee today.

The following names of residents of Alexandria county are written at the bottom of the case against Hodges which has been filed with the senate committee: J. Randolph Robertson, James E. Clements, R. F. Newton, Kate Seigal, Joseph Cheslock, A. E. Zimmerman, Samuel J. Lloyd, Bernard S. Robertson, Mrs. Virginia A. Gould and H. B. Fields.

The charges are the result of an allowance of $600 per annum made to Hodges by the school board of Alexandria county in addition to the salary of $1,200 per annum authorized by the county supervisors.

GENERAL HUERTA BECOMES ANXIOUS

Wants Two Thousand Men as Body Guard—Calls Cabinet Meeting.

REBEL SPIES ACTIVE.

Are Said to be Busily at Work Sowing Seed of Revolt in the Mexican Capital.

Mexico City, Feb. 10.—Surrounded by 2,000 armed troops and with every point in the capital under federal surveillance, General Huerta today faces a new plot to overthrow him on this, the anniversary of the dictator's coup that brought about the downfall and ultimate assassination of President Madero.

Near midnight Huerta suddenly called a cabinet meeting. His advisers were in consultation until an early hour today, discussing the plot just discovered, and the best means of putting it down.. The meeting was a star chamber one, and neither Huerta nor his minister would state what occurred.

Extraordinary steps were taken by Huerta today to guard against the threatened uprising. Two thousand troops guard the national palace, and there are guards at the arsenal and the Huerta home.

Again houses are commandeered and machine guns mounted on roofs, trained on the approaches to the palace and arsenal

Officers admit knowledge that rebel emissaries are now in the capital and have organized [illegible] among the police and among [illegible] men.

Huerta believes he is in constant danger of attack, and is adopting every means to protect himself.

Gen. Rudolfo Reyes, released from prison by Huerta, has been exiled to Europe. The dictator compelled Reyes to leave his wife and four children in Mexico as hostages against possible plotting by him.

DEATH OF W. F. DOWNEY.

Well-Known Livery Stable Keeper Passes Away in Washington.

Wm. F. Downey, whom Col. Roosevelt called a model citizen, died yesterday at his residence in Washnigton.

Mr. Downey, who operated one of the largest livery businesses in this part of the country, was noted chiefly for his charity, in which he never concerned himself with race or creed. Mr. Downey was one of the prime movers in the big mass meeting held in Washington two years ago to protest against the persecution of the Jews in Russia. He founded the home for the Good Samaritan, in L street near Seventeenth, northwest, and contributed to many other institutions

President Roosevelt was passing Downey's livery stable one morning when the stable took fire. The President noticed the male members of a colored congregation rush pell mell out of their church nearby and attack the blaze, and he wondered at it. He was informed that Mr. Downey had given the negroes part of the plot of ground on which their church was standing. Later on, in a public address, Mr. Roosevelt related the incident, and remarked that the people of Washington should be proud of Mr. Downey.

Downey was a child when his parents brought him to America from Limerick, Ireland, and he was only 12 years old when his father died, and he started to work in the Astor House in New York. Shortly before the civil war he went to Washington and established a livery stable, which was a success from the start. It is said that he accumulated a large fortune in the livery business. He was well-known in Alexandria and was esteemed. Mr. Downey owned a farm in Fairfax county near the city.

Mr. Downey, who was 70 years old, leaves a wife, one daughter and one son.

Members and Friends of Columbia Fire Company Hold Social Session Last Night

As had been anticipated, the called meeting of the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Company last night was pleasant in every detail, and all present were greatly pleased with their evening's entertainment. The meeting was in the nature of a social session, the main object of which was to tender an ovation to Henry S. Posey, the veteran driver of the engine, whose term of service extended over two score years.

The company and guests met at 8 o'clock with Wm. A. Smoot, also a veteran fireman, presiding.

With but few preliminaries, the organization, through President Smoot, presented Mr. Posey with a fine crayon portrait of himself and a new uniform. The recipient, in a few words and in a feeling manner, accepted these tokens of regard.

The assembly subsequently participated in an oyster roast which had been individually prepared by a committee consisting of J. Frank Petty, chairman, William G. Simpson, Ed. J. McDermott, William Craven, and Wm. F. Webster. This feature was greatly enjoyed. Stephen Taylor, driver of the hose wagon, and Mr. Posey saw that all present had a good time.

Short and impromptu speeches were made by several members of the company and their guests.

Among the visitors were R. W Wheat, who was one of the first members of the Columbia Company at its organization, and Loudoun Campbell who during the seventies was the engineer

The Columbia Company has received and accepted an invitation to participate in the parade on the 23rd instant.

OLD DOMINION SMOKER

Bang-up Wrestling Match is Feature of Sporting Program Held Last Night

Those who were fortunate enough to be present at the smoker of the Old Dominion Boat Club held in the Elks' Auditorium, last night, witnessed one of the best and most exciting wrestling bouts that has ever been pulled off in this vicinity. It was an event that was not on the program but far outshadowed anything that was scheduled.

After Joe Turner, of Washington, middle weight champion wrestler of the world, who came from Richmond to help out the boys of the Old Dominion in their program, had pulled off a bout with his partner Zereza, which was an interesting exhibit of scientfic wrestling, he was challenged by an "unknown" who wanted to make a side bet that he could stay with Turner for thirty minutes without being thrown. Turner would not make a bet but offered to take on the "unknown." When the latter had gotten in his fighting togs it was apparent that he was in good condition and when he caught his first hold it was to be seen that he was not a novice at the game. The contest that followed was one of the prettiest that has ever been seen by any man. For 30 minutes the two men were on the mat and when time was called neither had the advantage. Twice Turner appeared to have his man thrown but the "unknown" managed to break his hold. At different times he also had Turner in tight places.

When the bout was concluded it was announced that the "unknown" was Joe Willis, and that he claimed the championship of Finland. He offered to go on with Turner to a decision but the latter said that he had not expected to go up against such a tough proposition on his trip to Alexandria and would want two weeks to train before he took on Willis for a match. He finally agreed to give Willis a date provided the latter would arrange a couple of bouts before with other wrestlers. This Willis has agreed to do and the same will be pulled off in Alexandria in two weeks time.

Other sporting events on the program were sparring exhibitions between the Baum brothers, "Kid Cunningham against Young Montana and 'Shanky" Gardner against Benny Winters. Carl Mueller acted as referee.

In addition George H. Evans, Forrest Birrell and Mr. Sutton sang and the Mandolin Club furnished music.

ALEXANDRIA HAS NOT ASKED FOR HELP.

Today's Richmond Times-Dispatch published an editorial strongly favoring the passage of the Norris bill which is now pending in the House of Delegates which will limit the number of saloons in any city or community to one for every thousand population A hearing on the bill will come before the House Committee tomorrow and it is said that the members are inclined to report it favorable.

The Times-Dispatch in its appeal uses the following language which must refer to Alexandria as it is the only city in the state that can be characterized within " a stone's throw of a great city."

"Conditions in some of the cities of the State demand the passage of this bill. In some of them the number of saloons is out of all proportion to the number of inhabitants. In at least one city the saloons are so numerous as to become an intolerable nuisance. The citizens do not believe prohibition would solve the problem. They believe that, located almost within a stone's throw of a great city, to drive out the saloon would be to make room for speak-easies and blind tigers and to invite shipments by wholesale. They do believe, however, that should the State enact the pending Norris bill, and so cut the number of saloons in half, conditions would be improved immeasurably."

The Times-Dispatch certainly presumes in making this statement in reference to Alexandria. Certainly there has been no call on the state for the passage of the Norris bill nor do we believe the sentiment of the people favor its passage. The Democratic principle of local option in the handling of the affairs of the city has always been the attitude of its citizens and until there has been a different expression we cannot permit the plea of the Dispatch to go unchallenged.

Alexandria has a city government that can easily regulate the number of its saloons if it so desires. And there is an abundant remedy for the situation if the people of Alexandria want it and no futher state legislation on this subject is necessary.

FAREWELL TO SWEET CIDER.

Madame Roland's plaintive expression "Oh, Liberty, Liberty, what crimes are committed in thy name?" has reverberated through the years that have followed her brutal murder. These words were uttered by the unfortunate victim of anarchy while under the shadow of the guillotine, but since the days of the gifted French woman many have been constrained to make similar exclamations in the so-called "land of the free and the home of the brave.' '

While swords are not at present being flourished over the heads of citizens of the mother of states and statesmen, the ringmaster's whip is being flourished in a manner calculated to cause the author of the bill of rights to rest uneasily in his tomb.

The House of Delegates of Virginia, a body representing the rank and file of the Commonwealth, in their wisdom, have concluded that the use of cider must be prohibited in future, and that this old time and innocent beverage cannot be used hereafter by the sovereign people of the Old Dominion.

Thousands of persons with no passion for stimulants, but who enjoy the cheap and innocent fruits of the apple towards the close of the summer must part company with this healthful beverage at the ipse dixit of our lawmakers.

The question is pertinent, Whither are we drifting? At one time coffee was interdicted by the wiseacres of old England. This steaming breakfast beverage, the revivant of millions, may be the next object of attack by people who are looking for mischief in Virginia.

BANKER IN JAIL.

Fears Mob Violence and Pleads Guilty of Embezzlement.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb .10.—Fearing possible violence from a crowd of angry depositors, C. Hunter Raine, president of the Mercantile Bank of Memphis, gladly submitted to arrest and confessed that he alone was responsible for the wrecking of one of the oldest and heretofore strongest financial institutions in the South.

The warrant was served on Mr. Raine at his home. He was taken before Criminal Judge Palmer where he pleaded guilty.

Despite his protests that he did not want any bond fixed, Jndge Palmer placed the amount at $250,000, but Mr. Raine declared that he would make no effort to get the security and accompanied a deputy sheriff to the county jail.

With the discovery last night that $527,867 listed as actual cash on hand when the bank closed its doors $410-000 was represented by persons checks of President Raine, now imprisoned charged with embezzlement, the amount of the apparent discrepany in the accounts of the bank advanced to more than $1,000,000.

The exact amount will not be known until the audit being made under the direction of J. L. Hutton, state superintendent of banks, is completed. This will require several days.

Weak Lungs Often Lead to Serious Illness

If you have weak lungs, you are generally subject to colds or throat trouble and easily susceptible to serious Lung Trouble. In many cases pneumonia or bronchial troubles leave the lungs in a much weakened condition. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for the throat and lungs which has been found to be very beneficial, even when a change of climate and other treatments failed to bring relief. Read of this case:—

231 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J.
"Gentlemen: In the fall of 1905 I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise sputum, and my physician then told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alterative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1906, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now seven years since my recovery has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alterative too highly."
(Signed) W. M. TATEM.
Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

Millions Now Know Musterole

They used to put up with the muss and the bother of mustard plasters.

For, after all, nothing gave such immediate, such lasting relief as the old-time mustard plaster.

It smarted and blistered like all get-out, but it surely did the work.

Science has now combined the amazingly curative properties of mustard with other ingredients into a wonderful ointment.

It is called MUSTEROLE. And it does what mustard plasters used to do, without the plaster, and without the blister!

You just rub MUSTEROLE in. That's all. Then watch how soon the pain goes scouting. How the cool, soothing relief comes afterwards.

MUSTEROLE gives instant relief from Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsilitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents pneumonia).)

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

DIVERS FAIL TO GET DEAD.

Doors on Starboard Side of Monroe Could Not be Opened.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 10.—That the dead on the Old Dominion liner Monroe, now lying in 90 feet of water off Winterquarter light, as a result of a collision with the steamer Natucket, were trapped in the starboard saloons and staterooms, is the statement of divers of the wrecking tug Merritt which came into Norfolk Sunday.

Those who inspected the sunken steamer declare that the bridge on the starboard side, and below the water line, there is a gaping hole extending half way through the hull of the vessel, large enough for a two horse-wagon to be driven into. That she remained afloat ten minutes after the collision, they regard as miraculous.

The divers found all doors on the starboard side closed and so swollen that all efforts to open them, with the use of axes, were of no avail. They declare that an explosive will probably have to be used to open them and reach the bodies of the victims, and that this is probably the reason that no bodies have thus far been recovered.

As soon as the present rough weather passes the divers will use dynamite to open the doors, when it is believed, practically all of the bodies of the missing will be recovered. It is not expected this will be practicable before Wednesday or Thursday.

An inspection of the cargo of the steamer shows that it can be saved with little trouble compared to wha was expected. The steamer, however, will never be raised.

CROWD AT CONFERENCE.

Fifteen Hundred Persons Unable to Gain Admission.

Richmond, Va. Feb. 10—The BibleConference, under the auspices of the Federation of Men's Bible Classes of Richmond, opened last night with an attendance which surprised the most sanguine friends of the enterprise. Before 6 o'clock, the crowd began to assemble at Grace Street Baptist Church. By 7:30 o'clock 1,500 people were being turned away. Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, of London, reached the city at 7:30 and went directly to the church.

After an nspirng song service, led by Fred P. Buttler, of fifteen minutes Dr. Morgan was presented by Dr. Lloyd T. Wilson, pastor of the church Hundreds who could not find seats stood through the entire service. Dr. Morgan more than met expectation" of the great audience, and preached from the text, "I call you not servants, but friends."

Dr. Morgan is dramatic, without being sensational, and has command of a marvelous vocabulary. He stands for the most conservative interpretation of the old Bible, and his exposition of the text and his familiarity with the whole Bible were a revelation to his hearers.

CONFEDERATE WOMAN'S HOME.

Institution to Get $5,000 Yearly From The State Funds.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 10.—When the bill making an appropriation for the home for Needy Confederate Women was reached yesterday, Senator Saunders, the patron, arose and offered an amendment. The original bill provided for $10,000 a year, and the finance committee reduced the amount to $2,500 a year. To this Senator Saunders objected, and proposed making the sum $5,000 a year.

Supporting his amendment, Senator Saunders made an eloquent plea for the women, dwelling on their loyalty and devotion. In that home were women who had suffered and lost their homes, and all for the cause which was so dear to them. Their husbands, brothers and fathers had given up their lives, and the women were helpless and needy. The home had at one time a small revenue, but that had been cut off. The home is dependent on the cold charity of the State. He said there are twenty-seven inmates in the place, and almost daily there are applications for admission.

Senator Gravatt made a speech in support of the amendment, asking that the senate make this small appropriation for the women.

Senator Echols, chairman of the finance committee, opposed the amendment. He said that soon the appropriation bill would come up, and that it would be seen that it carried more than a total of $7,000,000 for the first year. He was forced to do a very disagreeable duty.

The vote was taken viva-voce and then by division, the Saunders amendment prevailing by a vote of 18 to 11.

WOULD BAR MRS. THAW.

Richmond Ministers Pass Formal Resolutions.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 10.—A committee from the ministerial union of Richmond called on Mayor Ainslie yesterday afternoon and petitioned him to issue an order forbidding Evelyn Nesbit Thaw to show with her company in this city.

The committee, which was composed of Revs. Lloyd T. Wilson, W. A. Christian and Wilbur F. Crafts, brought along a set of resolutions adopted by the union condemning the proposed appearance of the Thaw woman here, and urging that proper steps be taken to check it, if possible.

The resolutions set forth, among other things, that the notoriety alone which had come to Evelyn by reason of her connection with the Thaw murder trial ought to prevent her from appearing here.

Mayor Ainslie told the ministers that the matter would have to be referred to the city attorney for a legal opinion as to his right to stop the show.

The ministers, though of the opinion that sufficient authority was vested in the Mayor, finally agreed to accept his alternative. The city attorney, when appraised of the situation, said that he would be pleased to take up the matter.

Evelyn Thaw is scheduled to appear at the Academy of Music Wednesday, matinee and night, in a light vaudeville production which is said to savor of the ballet variety. She has already been debarred from several towns in the South.

The Rev. Daniel Grantham, pastor of a Baptist church at Purvis, Miss has been found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to five years in prison. He was convicted of killing George Burkhalter in a controversy growing out of an alleged feud between the Grantham and Burkhalter families.

ARRESTED AS A FUGITIVE.

Stranger Accused of Theft of $30 at Danville, Virginia.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Charged with being a fugitive from justice, a man who gave his name as Nicholas Scras, was arrested yesterday by Policeman Mansfield of the first precinct in Washington.

Gus Dorfiris, who said he conducts a candy store at Danville, Va., pointed out Scras to the policeman and declared that he had stolen $30 from him. He said he followed the man to Washington and located him on the street. The man denies the charge. He will be taken to the Virginia city.

PARSONS TO SUCCEDD LEE.

New Commissioner of Fisheries Comes From Accomac County.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 19.—The appointment of John S. Parsons of Accomac county, to succeed W. McDonald Lee, of Irvington, as State Commissioner of Fisheries, for a term of four years, beginning March 1, was nounced last night by Governor Stuart. His selection, although apparently desired by a majority of people of the Eastern Shore and the Northern Neck, comes as a distinct surprise. Mr. Parsons has only been an avowed candidate for the office since the withdrawal last week of Dr. J. W. Bowdoin, of Accomac.

At the same time the Governor announced the appointment of Walter H. Ryland, of Middlesex county, to succeed S Wilkins Matthews, of Assawoman, as secretary of the Commission of Fisheries for a term of four years, begining on March 1. Mr. Ryland is editor of the Southside Sentinel, of Urbanna, and was named with the cordial indorsement of the new commissioner.

No announcement in regard to the other three members of the commission all of whose terms expire on February 2, has been made.

QUEEN COMING TO VISIT.

Eleanora, of Bulgaria, Will Be Guest of United States.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 10—Queen Eleanora, of Bulgaria, intimates her intention of visiting the United States in the spring of 1915. The visit is to be undertaken with the full approval and by the wish of King Ferdinand.

For some time it has been an open secret that Queen Eleanora has been anxious to obtain at first hand some knowledge of the people who have shown such great kindness to the Bulgarian nation in its terrible distress caused by two wars.

Only a few days ago, when the Queen was expressing to a correspondent her grateful thanks to the American papers for their quick response to her nation's appeal, she hinted that if all went well she hoped one day to thank in person those who had come to her subjects' rescue.

The decison was made known to the Panama Exposition Commissioners Andrews, Rees and Brown, who, with the American minister to Sofia had a two-hour audience with King Ferdinand and Queen Eleanora at the royal palace The commissioners received the assurances of both. Their Majesties' lively interest in the San Francisco Exposition and a promise of participation.

It was then that the Queen informed them of her intention to visit America next spring. She probably will sail from an English port on one of the big liners and disembark at New York. One thing is certain, she will travel very simply.

Floods in the state of Bahia, Brazil, which have been sweeping over a large section of the country district, are increasing. Several villiages have been inundated and one small town has disappeared. The inhabbitants are taking refuge in the churches. Many lives have been lost and the damage to property is enormous.
